

liam of Germany is a type."—
Thomas A. Edison.

Now, would you believe, that Thomas is the greatest inventor of the age?

Wisconsin's new $10,000,000 capitol may have sleeping quarters for state commissioners, committeemen, game wardens and others who come to Madison and are lodged at hotels at expense of the state.

The idea is economy—but think of spoiling the good times of the officials.

Thomas Watts, head of Briceville mine disaster relief committee, was electrocuted while leading fight on fire in town of Coal Creek, near Briceville.

Winona, Minn., was without street car service today, following last night's riots by striking motormen and their sympathizers.

Report that King George had been assassinated in India spread all through Great Britain today.

Teddy Roosevelt had talk with Wm. L. Ward, New York Republican national committeeman at the Union League club last night.

Wherefore Ward is acting like an amateur detective, trying to avoid newspaper men today, and Roosevelt is saying: "Not a word, not a word!"

Cost to state of Harry Waldron's little defection from the path of duty and the jury in the Hyde murder trial, is $75,000.

Dr. Hyde also is free on $50,000 bond, awaiting his next trial, now set for Jan. 2.

Eight persons now under arrest in connection with dynamiting of government building at Fort Riley, Kan., and more arrests expected.

W. E. D. Stokes, millionaire hotel man, still is critically ill in his new York apartments.

Case of Lillian Graham and Ethel Conrad, two girls charged with shooting Stokes, went to jury today.

Assistant District Attorney Buckner, being out of reach of a hatpin, called Ethel Conrad the "most astounding combination of kitten and wildcat" he had ever seen.

Chairman Sheppard, of house public buildings and grounds committee, says that if his committee persists in reporting public buildings "pork barrel" bill, last year's billion dollar session will be miserly compared to this.

Well, it's the first time the Democrats have had a chance in—lo, these many years.

Brigadier General John J. Pershing, Manila, today issued ultimatum to Moro outlaws ordering them to deliver their arms by Saturday.

Wilson Conrad, 45, wealthy farmer, Ottawa, Ill., lost his way in fog today and drove his automobile into mill race and was drowned.

John Sokoloski, Polish laborer, Menasha, Wis., arrested for murder of own 3-year-old child.

Russian soldiers have turned more than 4,000 Persians out of their homes in Kasbin to make quarters for the czar's troops